

Report on Pi Day Celebration

Date: March 14, 2023

Venue: Math Department, Nanasaheb Yashavantrao Narayanrao Chavan Arts, Science, and Commerce College, Chalisgaon

The Mathematics Department of Nanasaheb Yashavantrao Narayanrao Chavan Arts, Science, and Commerce College, Chalisgaon, celebrated Pi Day on March 14, 2023, with great enthusiasm and scholarly spirit. The event, marking the mathematical constant π (pi), was a memorable occasion for both faculty and students.

The Pi Day celebration was inaugurated by the esteemed Principal, Dr. S. R. Jadhav, who highlighted the importance of mathematics in everyday life and its role in fostering critical thinking and problem-solving skills. Dr. Jadhav's inspiring speech set a positive tone for the day's events.

The event was meticulously coordinated by Mr. K. T. Gaikwad, who ensured the smooth execution of all activities. His efforts were complemented by the active help of the Head of the Department, Mr. S. G. Sonone, and Prof. S. N. Patil. Their combined efforts ensured that the event was not only educational but also engaging for all participants.

Students were challenged to recite as many digits of Pi as possible. The contest generated excitement and encouraged students to delve deeper into the study of this fascinating number. Students gave seminar regarding that.

The celebration of Pi Day at the college was a testament to the department's commitment to making mathematics accessible, enjoyable, and relevant to students. The enthusiasm displayed by both students and faculty alike ensures that Pi Day will remain a much-anticipated event in the college's academic calendar.
