

1. Disaster Management Camp:

The Avhan Disaster Management Camp was conducted from May 25, 2018, to June 3, 2018, at Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University in Aurangabad. Two volunteers from our Nanasahab Yashavantrao Narayanrao Chavan Art's, Science and Commerce College, Chalisgaon, Adarsh Dattatray Misal and Minakshi Dnyaneshwar Devare, were selected by the university to participate in this camp.

Both volunteers represented the college exceptionally well and actively participated in all activities, acquiring various skills. This camp significantly contributed to their personal development, boosting their self-confidence and instilling a new awareness of social service. The experiences and lessons learned at the camp were invaluable, and both volunteers committed to implementing these teachings effectively in their lives.

Overall, the camp was a transformative experience, enhancing the participants' abilities to manage disaster-related challenges and reinforcing their dedication to community service.

2. International Yoga Day:

On June 21, 2018, the International Yoga Day was celebrated at Nanasahab Yashavantrao Narayanrao Chavan Art's, Science and Commerce College, Chalisgaon. The event commenced at 6:00 AM, with college faculty members, non-teaching staff, and local citizens in attendance. Mrs. Seema Sharma led the yoga demonstrations, guiding participants through various exercises. Professors Dr. R. P. Nikam and Dr. Mrs. R. V. Patil provided assistance during the session.

The college principal, Dr. S. R. Jadhav, welcomed yoga instructor Mrs. Sharma and addressed the attendees on the significance of yoga. He emphasized yoga as a vital practice for maintaining health and wellness, highlighting it as an ideal lifestyle choice. Dr. Jadhav also elaborated on the holistic benefits of yoga.

3. Maharashtra Krishi (Agriculture) Day:

On July 1, 2018, Maharashtra celebrated Krishi Din (Agriculture Day) with a series of events aimed at highlighting the significance of agriculture in the state. The day's activities were organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS), which facilitated an interactive session between the NSS officers and students, fostering a deeper understanding of the agricultural sector.

NSS Activities Report 2018-19

As part of the celebration, students were encouraged to visit farms in their respective villages, where they worked alongside local farmers. This hands-on experience provided the students with valuable insights into the daily challenges and efforts involved in farming. Through direct participation in agricultural tasks, students gained a profound appreciation for the hard work and contributions of farmers to the national economy.

The program successfully raised awareness among students about the difficulties farmers face in producing crops, such as unpredictable weather, financial constraints, and resource limitations. By witnessing these challenges first-hand, the student volunteers developed a greater respect for farmers' perseverance and their pivotal role in sustaining the nation's agricultural productivity.

Furthermore, the event strengthened the bond between students and farmers, fostering a sense of unity and mutual respect. The interaction not only educated the students about the realities of agricultural life but also instilled in them a sense of responsibility and commitment towards supporting the agricultural community.
